CITY ITEMS.

Swiss cheese at Early & Finks. *

A match game of baseball is announced to take place here on Sunday next at Padgett's Park, between the Ft. Worth and Waco clubs. This game will be interesting as a close contest is looked for.

Fancy groceries, fine wines and liquors at Early & Finks. *

Major Moran of the Waco Farm has bought the Hay press which took the prize at the Dallas fair. It is a great machine with a capacity of from two to three tons per hour. It will be shipped from Dallas at once.

The genuine imported Cruse & Fills Chateau Bouillie at Early & Finks. *

It is amusing to stand on the corner of Fourth and Austin and see people trip, on two iron plugs which project up above the pavement about an inch. It is not amusing to the victims and some day some lady or gentleman or child will strike it and fall and break a leg or arm—tra-la.

A fine line of Dried Fruits at half price at Early & Finks.

The Waco Prohibition club is announced to meet to-night at 8 o'clock at the old Temperance hall. One interesting feature of the meeting will be the exhibition, by Mr. W. D. Jackson, of two magnificent portraits of the presidential candidates of the Prohibition party.

Joel B. Frazier whiskey twelve years old, guaranteed the finest made at Early & Finks.

Constable Lee Jenkins, on yesterday arrested two negroes, on the Downs farm about twelve miles down the Brazos river, Sam Miles charged with aggravated assault and battery and John Perry, for disturbing public worship. Both men gave bond for their appearance before the county court on the 21st inst., when their case will come up for trial.

Summer sausage at Early & Finks. *

Best Soda Water in Waco is at Morrison, Risher & Co's New Drug Store. "Only the best" fruit juices are used, and the greatest care is taken to produce the best glass of soda in the world.

Just received a large invoice of imported Claret at Early & Finks. *

In about six weeks cotton will commence to flow into Waco, and if the yield is anything like as abundant as the prospects indicate, we will experience lively times here this fall.

Ice cold bottle beer, pints $1.50 per dozen; quarts $2.50 per dozen at Palace Saloon.

Coldest keg beer in town at Palace saloon.

The News in a few days will commence the publication of a cheap column, which will be neat and presentable, and for the accommodation of those who are out of employment and seeking situations, we will insert their advertisements free of charge.

Large lot of clarets and Rhine wine to close out cheap, at the Palace saloon.

Elgin Creamery Butter the finest made at Early & Finks.

The Waco Light Infantry will hold a meeting to-night. Capt. Morrow desires a full attendance of the members, as some important matters will be up for consideration. We hope the Company will decide to accept the invitation to the drill at Dallas in October, and commence to drill regularly, to be prepared to compete for a prize on that occasion.

Rarest old whiskey for chill and fever bitters at Palace saloon.

On yesterday a delightful lawn party was given complimentary to Miss Hattie King, by Mrs. C. C. Conger, at "Hillside Farm," the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Conger, about twelve miles from the city. Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen from Waco were present, and the happy event will long be remembered by all who participated. The host and hostess won much praise for their superb manner of entertaining.

The Silver Moon is always open and will give you prompt attention.

Morrison, Risher & Co. are agents for Texas for Jno. Wyeth & Co's celebrated Fluid Extracts, Elixers, Filtrates and Pharmaceutical Preparations generally, and have just received a complete stock of those goods, and can supply the trade, both wholesale and retail, at manufacturers prices.

The charitable entertainment of the "Kings Daughters" which takes place at the residence of Col. R. B. Parrott, on South Third street this evening, from 5 until 10 p. m., deserves the encouragement and support of all the good people of Waco. The purpose of this entertainment is to render aid to those in our midst that are in want. On their banner is inscribed the following significant initials, I. H. N.—"In His Name."

Few business men, in Waco, are as well prepared to handle their business as John D. Mayfield. He buys all kinds of notes, and lends money on all kinds of security and for any desired length of time.

You will save money by patronizing the Silver Moon restaurant.

Go to the Silver Moon and call for what you want.

The democrats of the Proctor Spring precinct, held a meeting last night for the purpose of electing delegates to the county Democratic Convention which convenes here to-morrow. W. H. Lessing was elected permanent chairman and R. W. Andrews permanent secretary. After some discussion on the tariff issue and other prominent questions of the National campaign, the following gentlemen were elected delegates to the county Democratic Convention: W. H. Lessing, John Wold; M. D. Herring, John Dyer, J. A. Slink, Douglass Herring and R. W. Andrews.

Mr. B. Alexander had on exhibition in his store window to-day three magnificent peaches and Bartlett pears three of which weighed two and a half pounds. The three were from a bunch of five, two having dropped off, the whole bunch would have weighed over four pounds.

Mr. J. H. Bird, of Tehuacanna, says with one bottle of Tucker's "Brazos Chill Cure" he broke up, last week, three cases of chills and fever. On Monday he bought two more bottles for his laborers, stating that he felt sure this medicine would keep them on their feet, whereby he would be enabled to save his crop.

Loose hay only $4.75, see Marjo Moran.

The cabbage crop is about over. It has been a big one. One gardener across the river had sixty thousand head, about forty thousand of which he sold.

Ladies, Tucker has just received a large shipment, fresh, of the celebrated "Blatt" Insect Powder.

The eagle of which mention was made by the News yesterday, was today at Herr's billiard room and lots of people stood about admiring it.

Bale hay, only $6.75 per ton, by the car $1.00 less, Major Moran.

Tucker's Simple Remedies are working big results for the people, true merit will out.

The great eclipse of the moon will come off as advertised on Sunday night at 8:30 sharp.

The camp-meeting still continues at the Morrow street chapel.

No better place in the city to take your Prescriptions than at the "Mon Drug Store" Tucker or one of his efficient dispensers are always on hand at any hour of the night with telephone connection to night clerk.

If you would avoid being bilious, take Tucker's "Brazos Chill Cure," the very best and purest anti-malarial remedy in the market.

Tucker's "Chill Cure"—never fails. No Strychnine nor Arsenic.

You will find bargains in hay by looking at the offers of Major Chas. Moran in our local notices. Moran is rushing hay to consumers at bottom prices.

A TERRIBLE TALK.

A green watermelon sat on a fruit stand, singing "Mellow, I'm mellow, I'm mellow." And a small boy stood there with a seat in his hand, saying "Mellow, it's mellow, quite mellow." So he ate a big chunk out right out of the seat. And he ate it all up to the hard outside part. And they carried him off in a rag dealer's cart. Poor fellow, poor fellow, poor fellow.

Spoiled Their Spooling.

San Francisco Chronicle.

They were spooling in the shade. The conversation had fallen into spasms. She was pulling grass and dropping it on her dress and he was brushing it off with silly solicitude. A lot of children were clambering up a very steep bank opposite; "See those children," he said. "They climb up that steep bank as easily as possible. We couldn't do that."

"Do you know why they climb up there so easily?"

"No."

"Because they are kids."

He only squeezed her hand.

"Yes," he said, "life is so lonely."

"It is lonely, sometimes," she answered.

"Wouldn't it be sweet to have a little cottage covered with ivy and honeysuckle and rose bushes?"

"Oh! wouldn't it?"

"And when a fellow came home tired, from business, to have a nice little wife meet him at the door with a kiss."

"Y-e-e-s."

"And then summer nights, the windows open, the sunset just giving light enough in the cosy parlor and you—I mean a wife at the piano singing in the gloaming. It would be lovely."

"I think—it would—be—nice."

"And then—"

At this point a care-worn woman came around the corner with a pair of twins in a perambulator. A dead silence fell upon the air for a little. Then they changed the subject.
